

REFINERY29

FEBRUARY 12, 2014

Well folks, the day has arrived to find a date in the name of Saint Valentine. If you're still scrounging for ideas that don't involve binging on a box of chocolates (hey, that's cool with us, too!), don't worry, because this year we're spreading some love by sharing these five heart-pounding happenings. Whether you have a sweetheart who deserves affection or are just a hopeless romantic, we are here to play trusty cupid and lead you to some blushing fêtes. Without further adieu, a stress-free 14th for you, and you, and you!

Spa Radiance Spread The Love Treatment

As a princess in your own right, you deserve to lay in a bed of roses at least once in your life. Spa Radiance wants to melt away that winter chill, with a little bit of spoiling and pampering to warm your heart once again. With a luxe two-hour session, you will leave a whole new person! Close your eyes and conjure up visions of candles, chocolates from local Recchiuti, a rose-infused body scrub, topped off with some mud paint, and finally — the divine steam tent. Yep, that's the doozy of a glorious experience awaiting you — oh, and did we forget a full body massage?! Put us down for two!

When: Now through Friday, February 28

Where: Spa Radiance, 3011 Fillmore Street (at Union Street); 415-346-6281.

Bed of Roses Treatment Cost: $200, book it here!
